

SELebrate the Jewish Holidays

EMBRACING JEWISH LIFE WITH SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL LEARNING

A Temple Sinai of Roslyn Initiative

This is a monthly, multi-generational program at Temple Sinai of Roslyn for children 2–4 years old and their grownups (grandparents welcome!), which will explore a Jewish Holiday and its themes with a PJ Library book and through a social-emotional learning (SEL) lens. Every month, an SEL-trained educator and a Jewish professional will co-facilitate small groups for participants, incorporating hands-on activities, music, and books.

Thursday, September 9, 4:30pm

HOLIDAY: Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur

SEL SKILL: Accountability

Oh No, George!

Written by Chris Haughton

Illustrated by Chris Haughton

George is a dog who means well. He really does. But he keeps making mistakes. Soon George learns how to take responsibility for his behavior, make amends, and try to do better the next time. (Emphasis on TRY.)

THE BIG QUESTION: How can we do better next time?

ACTIVITY: Family Promise Plate

PJ Library sends free, award-winning books that celebrate Jewish values and culture to families with children from newborns through 12 years old. Begin receiving your books today! Sign up at ny.pjlibrary.org.
