

February 21-February 24, 2023
9:00am-4:00pm Daily

Hannah Senesh Community Day School
342 Smith Street, Brooklyn, NY

Senesh is excited to offer a multicultural day camp program that centers Jews of Color open to any Jewish kindergarten through second grade children during the February 2023 school break.

Kulanu (כולנו) is Hebrew for 'All of Us' and at Camp Kulanu, we will build a community that is truly by and for ALL OF US and reflects the diversity of the modern Jewish people and Brooklyn Jewish life.

Our camp program will offer a unique experience where celebrating Jewish diversity and values enhances everything we do. Each day will be filled with a variety of activities including sports, arts, creative play, cooking, music, dance, and more—all infused with that experiential Jewish touch and, of course, fun!

Our mission is for campers and their families to:

- co-create a warm, joyful, connected, and safe experience in a Jewish space
- understand explicitly and implicitly that there are many ways to act, look, and be Jewish
- feel rooted and self-confident about their own Jewish journey
- experience a sense of belonging in the rich mosaic of Jewish life

Cost:

$400 Regular Day Enrollment

$500 Regular Day + Extended Day Enrollment

Camp applications are now open to Senesh and non-Senesh students at hannahsenesh.org/campkulanu

More Information:

Jamie Maxner, Director of Strategic Partnerships & Community Engagement

jmaxner@hannahsenesh.org

Rooted in Wisdom. Ready for the Future.

342 Smith Street, Brooklyn, NY 11231

hannahsenesh.org | 718.858.8663