

Meet JBI: Spring Holiday Program at the Library

Wednesday, March 15th, 3:45pm-4:45pm

Register online at NYPL.org/talkingbooks (under kids events)

or by calling 212-206-5400

For all ages

Join us for songs, poetry, sensory activities, and to check out all kinds of accessible braille, large print and audiobooks for Spring! Explore cultural traditions around Passover, as well as other Spring themes and holidays, and learn about free resources for braille and audio!

The Andrew Heiskell Braille and Talking Book Library provides free accessible reading material, technology coaching, and cultural programs for community members with print disabilities.

Since 1931, JBI (est. as The Jewish Braille Institute) has been helping blind, visually impaired, and reading disabled individuals of all ages and backgrounds to participate in Jewish life and learning. The JBI Library provides free texts in Braille, Audio, and Large Print formats.

For ASL, CART, or other accommodations, please email accessibility@nypl.org